PREFACE: NUMBER YOUR DAYS AND APPLY IT TO WISDOM

Moses was 40 years old when he took a decision that sent him into oblivion for 40 years of his life. Decision to defend his fellow Hebrew Brother which led to him becoming a ‘wanted’. By the time he spent 40 years in preparation, God brought him out into limelight not as king in Egypt that he would have become, but as a god over the throne of Egypt which Pharaoh sat upon. He walked before God, led the people, spoke mouth to mouth with the Almighty for another 40 years before going to be with the Lord at the ripe age of One Hundred and Twenty Years.

In the past 4 years, having been impacted by my Pastor, an astute writer and author of many books - Pastor Olayemi Paul Binoran the Lord has been helping me to write and publish books to mark my birthdays.

The 4th in the list titled "Walk Before Me" marks my 40th Birthday.

What a joy! I'm glad am Forty+ and Forth right with my Maker. Life indeed begins at forty!

INTRODUCTION

As a Worker in the Church, a Pastor or an Overseer over the people of God, one thing we should and as a matter of fact must do is to see to it that our walk before the Lord is perfect.

How do I mean? I am speaking of personal assessment, a periodic check of our walk. Perhaps a self-check could have revealed Father Abraham's imperfect walk before the Lord beforehand when God spoke to him in Genesis chapter seventeen and verse one.

The temptations the devil throws at good people are good things which is why we could be falling off the track without knowing or we could be justifying our actions since our motive for doing what we are doing is right.

David will not fall for sin of adultery again, he learnt from the chastisement of the Lord and knew from experience that it is bad, and a no-go area. But he fell for the sin of counting or numbering the people which appears harmless to natural sense, but God was as angry with him just as the time he committed adultery.

The Bible says “And Satan stood up against Israel and provoked David to number Israel”

“And God was displeased with this thing therefore he smote Israel” [1Chronicles 21:1&7]. He smote Israel for David’s sin.

Sometimes, somethings ought not to happen to children of God, but because the ‘Rock’ is not pleased with our walk at some critical moment those things happened.

“How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold them, and the Lord had shut them up” [Deuteronomy 32:30]

This book is to charge us to assess our walk with God - are we still following the Master’s pattern? How are we doing what He ask us to do? Have we loved the ministry more than the owner of it? Are we still running the race the way we started? And so on. Peradventure a deviation is discovered we should not hesitate to stop from where we are and cry unto Him to realign our walk before Him.

If a man suddenly discovers he is journeying on a wrong route, but refuses to turn back because he has gone far, not only will he never get to intended destination, but also all his effort as long as he remains on a wrong path account for nothing.

I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living [Psalms 116:9]

CHAPTER 1

WALK BEFORE ME

And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him I am the Almighty God; walk before me and be thou perfect [Genesis 17:1]

What does it mean to walk before the Lord? As one Christian Literature rightly puts it: walk before the Lord is to set Him always before us and to think, speak and act in everything as those that are always under His eye. It is to constantly have regards for His Promise, Word and Instructions, as our rule and guide and to His glory as our end, in all our actions. It is to be spiritual in all the duties of religious worship and wholly devoted to Him in all holy conversation. We must remember that this upright walking with God is the condition of our interest in His all-sufficiency. If we neglect Him or dissemble with Him, we forfeit the benefit of our relations to Him.

In other words, "walk before the Lord" is a call to a personal relationship with God. For someone who is not yet born again it means get born again, for someone who is born again, but his/her heart is far from God it means draw nearer to Him (again).

And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah and Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years and begat sons and daughters and all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years and Enoch walked with God and he was not for God took him' [Genesis 5:21-24]

One Testimony that Enoch obtained which is recorded in scriptures is that he walked with and pleased God. What a testimony, what a report, what a memorial...

"By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death and was not found because God translated him for before his translation, He had this testimony that he pleased God" [Hebrew 11:5]

Job also walked before God blamelessly. God was proud of him and would boast of Job's uprightness before the sons of God in the heavenly realm, including Satan.

"One day the members of the heavenly court came to present themselves before the Lord and the Accuser, Satan came with them. Then the Lord asked Satan, have you noticed my servant, Job? He is the finest man in all the earth. He is blameless - a man of complete integrity. He fears God and stays away from evil." [Job 1: 6 & 8 NLT]. "...a perfect and upright man" [KJV]

Even though not too many got such a commendation from God, but it should be an aspiration of many among the fold of the Children of God. We should all aspire to be so commended by the Master.

Perfection before God is possible. Although it's a journey because it will take time, practice, getting it wrong and learning to get it right over and again nevertheless without a destination in mind one will arrive at nowhere.

The Time Factor –

A bit of Father Abraham's background shows that he was born into an idol worshipping family just like many of us in Africa. So, God called him while he was yet known as Abram out of his family; he obeyed and departed, but his family way of life wouldn't depart from him that quickly. It takes time to unlearn the way of the flesh and learn the way of the Spirit.

“Now the Lord had said unto Abram, get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred and from thy father’s house unto a land that I will shew thee” “So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran”. [Genesis 12: 1 & 4]

Take note of his age. The scriptures had it recorded as 75 years at the time God called him which signifies the beginning of his walk before the LORD. At 99, 24 years later on his walk before the Lord was brought into questioning or appraisal and the only thing that was demanded of him was ‘be thou perfect’. His walk before the LORD fell short of Heaven’s standard.

“And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me and be thou perfect” [Genesis 17:1]

It is often said that it takes time for men that God would use to be formed. The longer the preparation takes, the solid the man of God would become.

This was the case of Moses; it took 40 years for him to be prepared dwelling in the land of Midian for the assignment of delivering the Children of Israel from the hands of their slave master.

The Scriptures according to the account of the book of Luke chapter three and verse twenty-three, the Lord Jesus being in the flesh as human could not begin active ministry until he was about the age of 30 years old. Before this time, His mother having seen the hand of God over her son and remembering all the strange events around his growing up in addition to the prophesies of Him being the promised Messiah, and God in human form asked for a miracle at the wedding of Canaan, but the Lord Jesus said 'my time has not come' showing us that the time factor in becoming perfected is a matter not to be trivialized. Although he later turned water into wine just for the sake of the mother and the obedience of the servants at the ceremony.

“Jesus said to her, “woman, what does your concern have to do with me? my hour has not yet come” [John 2:4]

The Practice –

“But refuse profane and old wives’ fables and exercise thyself rather unto godliness. For bodily exercise profiteth a little but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come” [1Timothy 4:7-8].

The scriptures above says: exercise yourself unto godliness and then compare godliness with physical exercise so we can have a better understanding of how it works. For athletes who really need physical exercise to be at the top of their career, practice and constant practice is the way to go. For some of us who do daily or weekly walking, jogging, swimming, weight lifting and so on, we will appreciate the fact that when we keep at our routine we get better, stronger and gain mastery.

Godliness or godly virtues like holiness, truthfulness, obedience, giving, holy lifestyle, forgiving and so on requires practicing. As we practice, they become part and parcel of us.

In addition to time, to walk before the Lord and be perfect requires practice. Just because time is needed, we don’t just fold our hands and be marking time waiting for perfection. Rather we use the time to practice. That is why some will attain perfection in a short time and quicker than others, it is about how much is put into practicing.

“for every one that useth milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe”. “But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil”

[Hebrews 5:13-14]

The young prophet Samuel didn't know or understand the voice of God when he first started under the tutelage of Senior Prophet Eli, but he later grew to understand very clearly the speaking of God after that experience.

The Chinese proverb says a journey of a thousand miles begins with a step.

Abraham in his walk before the Lord would practice sacrificing or giving up a child for God in Ishmael first before he gave Isaac which provoked the blessing of God upon him. Against his will and very grievous to him, he sacrificed Ishmael by sending him and his mother away without looking back as God had asked him to listen to Sarah after she saw the mocking episode.

“And Sarah was the son of Hagar the Egyptian which she had born unto Abraham, mocking”

“And the thing was grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son”

“And God said unto Abraham, let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice for in Isaac shall thy seed be called” [Genesis 21: 9, 11 & 12]

The Learning Process-

“All scriptures is given by the inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness”

“That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works” [2 Timothy 3:16 & 17]

One thing that Father Abraham learnt and worked for him was to trust God completely. He has been given the promise even before agreeing with his wife to have a child with another woman. Apparently, time was not on their side anymore so it makes sense to take that decision at least to abate the anxiety of waiting for the fruit of the womb. But when God showed up even at that old age and gave him a son through his wife Sarah, he learnt a lot. And by the time God now demanded for Isaac, Abraham having learnt trust and faith was able to surrender the child.

Every experience in life is a lesson. Your mistakes are lessons, so don't feel too bad when you make some rather look for the lessons in them and become wiser.

An African proverb says, if a child falls down he looks forward to continue walking, but if an adult falls down he looks backward to see what caused the fall so it can be avoided in the future.

Sometimes God allows us to make mistakes so we can learn better and become stronger. Jesus knew ahead of time that Peter would betray the Master, but He let him and prayed for a better Peter in the future.

"But I have pleaded in prayers for you, Simon that your faith should not fail. So, when you have repented and turned to me again, strengthen your brothers" [Luke 22:23 NLT]

To walk before the Lord and be perfect one must be a good student of history, learning as much as possible. Avoid a repeat of old mistakes and keep close the testimonies of what God has done in the past to gather faith for the demands of the future.

The Refining Fire is not only interested in our walk with Him, but that the walk be perfect. Walk before me and be thou perfect

Who and what does a refining fire? “And He shall sit like a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness” [Malachi 3:3] Having called the sons of Levites to be priest that should be separated unto him and make sacrifices for the sins of the people He still want to purify and make them perfect, acceptable and blameless.

“For God did not call us to uncleanness, but in holiness”
[1Thessalonians 4:7 NKJV]

CHAPTER 2

THE DECISION OF PETER

Simon Peter saith unto them I go a fishing. They say unto him we also go with thee. They entered into a ship immediately and that night they caught nothing.

[John 21:3]

And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room where abode both Peter and James and John and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Batholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon Zelotes and Judas the brother of James. These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren [Acts 1:13-14]

Our Father in the Lord - beloved Daddy GO once shared how that he was not particularly happy with the theme ‘Let’s go a fishing’ when the Lord gave it to him for the Redeemed Christian Church of God bi-annual soul winning and church planting exercise. He was not happy because it was a statement of Peter at his backsliding state. But the Lord told Daddy GO to go ahead with it notwithstanding.

From Daddy GO's sharing I understand it is true that 'I go a fishing' is statement of Peter at his backsliding state yet it's an honest, realistic and sensible decision to make at that point in time. Looking at the fact that he had denied and betrayed the Lord Jesus contrary to his promise that he would not. But when Jesus appeared and appealed to him three times Peter rescinded his decision to go a fishing and rather followed the Lord. This decision of Peter to walk before the Lord again is the foundation or what birthed the Church. How powerful that decision was and it is today.

This is in confirmation of the word of Jesus ahead of time:

And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. [Matthew 16:18]

Peter made a U-turn. He was headed to Go-a-Fishing but stopped, changed his mind and decided to Go-a-Fishing the Lord's sheep instead. The Lord had said to him, 'feed my sheep'.

However, Peter could have decided otherwise and thereby nullify the Prophetic word of Jesus. If Peter had no role or choice, but must do what the Lord had said concerning him then He would not have come to persuade Peter those three times.

When the holy scripture says the Heaven even the heavens, are the Lord's: but the earth He hath he given to the children of men in Psalms One Hundred and Fifteen and Verse Sixteen, it means as far as this earth is concerned God has given men and women the liberty to choose and decide individual course of action.

This also shows that it is not too late for anyone to decide to follow the Lord wholly. No not at all! No matter how much we have denied or refused Him whether privately or openly. He is still waiting for our decision to walk before Him.

The decision of Peter led to the re-grouping of the remaining Apostles; they abode in the upper room praying then the promise of the Holy Ghost coming upon them was fulfilled. This encounter drew men to them, people started saying these people are like Christ and would call the Apostles Christians at Antioch later on; the lame man at the gate called beautiful was healed, Peter would preach thereafter and on the strength of this miracle 3,000 souls would be added to the church and so on.

The Lord Jesus needed a fore runner for the establishment of the Church after His ascension into Heaven, just like He got one in John the Baptist to kick start His earthly ministry among the Jews, He got Peter and prayed for him ahead for this assignment.

But I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not and when thou art converted strengthen thy brethren [Luke 22: 32]

The Lord needs your and my decision to actualize His counsel, purpose and His kingdom here on earth which will now pave the way for His eternal counsel. Whatever God will do on earth man is at the centre of it. In fact, it must rest upon the shoulders of a human. This is why God is daily calling on men and women from all works of life to walk before Him.

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come [Matthew 24:14]

And He said unto them Go ye into the world and preach the gospel to every creature [Mark 16:15]

CHAPTER 3

I GO AND PREPARE A PLACE FOR YOU

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go and prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also
[John 14: 1-3]

Primarily a walk before the Lord establishes His counsel and expands the frontiers of the Kingdom of God here on earth. Because whatever God will do on earth He does through men and women and not until He finds those that will walk before him His purpose or intention may be on hold. If Daniel had not found and prayed the prophetic word of Jeremiah as touching 70 years of children of Israel in Babylonia captivity and tarried for 21 days until the answer came, they would have spent beyond that time in captivity until God will find another man to do the job. A similar scenario played out in Egypt when they spend 430 years instead of 400 years that God had told Abraham they would spend as slaves in Egypt. Until Moses showed up they remained in bondage. The book of Judges is full of accounts of men and women like Gideon and Deborah; how that they held the deliverance of their nation in their hands and when they left the scene the people continued in oppression.

Secondarily, a walk before the Lord is important because there is a place He has prepared for us in eternity. And frankly speaking we cannot get there by accident or casually except by a walk with Him. Except for one of the thieves on the cross that was crucified along with the Lord Jesus, we have not seen anyone who did not walk with the Lord, yet entered into eternal bliss. Even the so-called thief knew something the other thief did not know. He knew Jesus was guiltless of all the accusations that they were just lies against Him in order for the Jews and Elders to find a reason to crucify Him, so he prayed specifically asking that the Lord remember him in His father's kingdom. How come a thief knew that much and was smart enough to pray those prayers within a very short space of time and at a very crucial moment. He surely must have had knowledge of scriptures that spoke about the coming Messiah and seeing the events of things how they unfolded, he concluded this must be the One. For me this suggest a walk with the Lord for this thief which he'd missed at some point nevertheless mercy found him at the nick of time.

Heaven is not a place for perfect people someone said, but a place for people that were forgiven, washed and saved by the blood of Jesus.

Without repentance there is no remission of sins a scripture says... Repentance is at the core of a walk before the Lord. Anyone who is willing to repent and forsake old ways is qualified for this crucial walk.

In 2009, I was driving from Kaduna to Edo State, Nigeria to attend a friend's wedding. I remember going to Abuja and picking three of our friends from the office; we were mostly Bankers and due to the nature of our job we were tired so everyone was sleeping in the vehicle. Suddenly I looked up at the road sign post and saw 'Ibillo' and realized I was headed for Lagos! Behold I had missed my way. So, I woke them all up, we started asking around, made a U-turn and God helped us connect back to the right route. By this time, it was already dark in the evening, so we arrived Benin late in the night.

If I had continued on that path I would never have arrived at Benin no matter how far I had gone. So, friends no matter how long you have been doing something wrong because you never knew; the moment you realize it is wrong, you have just got to stop!

It doesn't matter what people will say, it doesn't matter the resources expended, time or energy, a wrong route will never take anyone to their destination. Again, I have discovered that when God loves someone, he sends correction to the person. But sometimes our pride, achievement, status or stubbornness will not let us take the correction and make a U-turn.

“For whom the Lord loveth he correcteth, even as a father the son in whom he delighteth” [Proverbs 3:12]

‘Let the godly strike me, it will be a kindness, if they correct me it is a soothing medicine. Don’t let me refuse it... [Psalm 141:5a NLT]

That was a prayer of David, sometimes it is not God that directly corrects us, He sends other people to do so. It was Nathan the Prophet that came to correct King David, yet he didn't refuse it.

Correction is not condemnation nor is it judgement.

CHAPTER 4

LOOKING UNTO JESUS

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God [Hebrews 12: 2]

Except we look unto Jesus, we cannot successfully walk before the Lord. To look unto Jesus suggest focus with little or no room for distractions, trust Him with firm faith that He will not let us down even in the midst of raging storm and water, and rest in the assurance of His unfailing love and abounding grace.

To walk before the Lord is to walk in faith, and here is Jesus, the scriptures present Him to us as the author which means creator, inventor and at the same time the finisher which means the ending and finality of our Faith. Jesus is also in-between and that is crucial.

When in a race, be it a marathon or 100-meter dash, there is always a starting point where the shoe of the athlete must touch before the gun is fired to take off which is the beginning. Then there is an end called the finishing line where a winner emerges. Looking closely, you will see that a lot of twist and turns happen in-between the start and end. That is where some are been overtaken, some who may be initially leading drop in momentum due to tiredness, some may even fall on the ground.

Just as it is in a race, a walk also does not only have start and end, but also some middle point or in-between. So, keeping our focus on Jesus starts from the beginning, it extends to the middle and finally to the end. These three segments are very important and crucial. That is why it is possible to start walking before the Lord and miss it at some point.

“Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful work? And then will I profess unto them I never knew you depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock” [Matthew 7:22-24]

The people the Lord Jesus described in the above scripture didn't start as fake prophets or pastors, looking for money to get from people's pocket, they didn't start as 'workers of iniquity' but rather started as genuine as possible.

There are pressures and challenges along the way which could make one helpless. Many people surrender to doing what they know is not totally right out of pressure to meet up with expectations of loved ones, leaders and the society even after putting in their best. I have found myself in such a situation and succumb to the pressure, but in the end, I found out that all I needed was more faith. Faith that I can walk through this fire uncompromising and not get burnt.

"When you pass through the waters, I will be with you, and through the rivers they will not overwhelm you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned or scorched nor will the flame kindle upon you" [Isaiah 43:2 AMPC]

"if it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king" "But if not, be it known unto thee, O king that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up" [Daniel 3:17-18]

But If not, even if He will not...

CHAPTER 5

FADING GLORY

The fading glory of those proud leaders will disappear like the first figs of the season, picked and eaten as soon as they are ripe. (Isaiah 28:4 GNT)

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. While we look not at the things which are seen but at the things which are not seen, for the things which are seen are temporal but the things which are not seen are eternal.

[2Corinthians 4:17-18]

The world and its desires pass away but whoever does the will of God lives forever. [1John 2:17 NIV].

Glory is good. It is about honour, great beauty, something to take pride in and so on. The Bible has so much to say about glory. Second Corinthians Chapter Three verse Eighteen says, ‘but we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord is being transformed into the same image from glory to glory just as by the Spirit of the Lord’.

This scripture speaks about the radiating glory of the Lord and how we His children are being transformed into same in dimensions. Moses experienced this transformation raw! He was in the presence of God for Forty Days and by the time he left and returned to the people, his face shone so much that no one could look him in the face, so Moses had to use a veil to cover his face.

There is glory here on earth and we all seek it consciously and unconsciously. When you seek to be excellent in your chosen field of endeavour you are seeking glory unconsciously because that excellence or fineness or distinction will attract the rich, the powerful and favour to your direction. You will command respect. Even the Bible talks about sitting among kings and not mere men, when the gift of a man makes way for him.

There is glory in entertainment industry, when you are doing so well and winning awards, you will be sought after, money and influence will be cheap for you.

When you are at the top of your career you have personal assistant, special assistant, orderly, driver, escorts and so on. This is glorious. That is glory. Everyone likes this.

But do you know all these glories will fade away... yes, it is already fading away gradually.

“Our days on earth are like grass: like wildflowers, we bloom and die” [Psalm 103:15 NLT]

However, there is a superior glory that will never fade away which children of God ought to desire more. It is the glory of heaven; it's eternal bliss.

The challenge of desiring the fading glory more is that it can block one's eyes from looking forward to eternal glory. One can get carried away in the quest of or after getting earthly glory.

Nevertheless, Christians should not be heavenly focused and earthly useless. We cannot shy away from earthly relevance and prosperity which brings about dominion. Nonetheless we have to be heavenly minded and be intentional about making it to heaven.

One way to help is to always empty oneself like Apostle Paul. He said I die daily. One day we will all leave the glory achieved here and transit into higher glory.

As we abound in earthly glory, be it in ministry, secular especially in the political space, we should not forget to empty ourselves before the Lord regularly.

“how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God” [Mark 10:24b]

The Lord help His people to gain eternal glory in Jesus’ name.

We are destined for eternity!

THE BOOK

Walk Before Me is not just another book in the shelve but a message and a solemn call for personal assessment in regards to individual's personal relationship and dealings with God.

Walk before me and be thou perfect [Genesis 17:1] was the call and charge God gave to Abraham after he had walked for about twenty-four years with God already.

The book reveals that it is a delight to God when a man or woman decides to walk before the Lord which connotes a close relationship and a greater delight when the walk becomes perfect.

The nitty-gritty of this walk as contained in this book is awesome, simple, eye opener and will be a blessing to anyone who will genuinely turn to the Lord for a relationship and to please Him.

You will surely find rest for your soul!
